

Health Needs Assessment Workshop

Monday 27th March 2006, 09.30-12.30

Seminar Room, Dunston Hill Hospital

Programme

09.20 Coffee/tea

09.30 Introduction

Learning objectives. Participants to leave with:

- an understanding of the key elements within a health needs assessment
- a framework within which to undertake their own health needs assessment
- an awareness of how business cases will be assessed within the PCT
- an appreciation of how to use health needs assessment within a business case

09.35 Illustrating different types of need – buying a PC

10.00 A practical example of Health Needs Assessment carried out in Gateshead

10.20 Developing a Health Needs Assessment using a standard framework, within participants own area of practice

11.15 Tea/Coffee

11.30 How can a Health Needs Assessment inform a business case?

12.20 How will today change things?

12.30 Finish

Gateshead PCT, Public Health, March 2006